

Expectations

When participating in YOMA programs or activities, every youth agrees to:

- create a safe, supportive, welcoming space for everyone
- always use appropriate and respectful language and actions
- respect yourself, others, the Facilitators, the facility and their rules
- do as asked by the Facilitators and volunteers
- be certain you sign in and sign out or are signed in and out by a parent
- make sure YOMA has a signed Registration form and provide updates when needed

No weapons, alcohol, drugs or anyone under the influence of alcohol or drugs are permitted.

If a youth does not follow these rules, they will receive a verbal warning. If the behaviour continues, the youth will be asked to leave. If there are continuous or ongoing issues the youth may be suspended from the programs based on the severity of the issue.
